Singapore - The Sree Narayana Mission (Singapore) will be celebrating its 70th Anniversary Charity Dinner on Friday, 10 May 2019 at 6.30p.m in the Orchid Country Club. Madam Halimah Yacob, President of Singapore, will grace the event as Guest-of-Honour.

1 Encompassing the theme 'Progress with Compassion', which reflects SNM's commitment to continued growth, excellence and serving the community in the future, the dinner will comprise several collaboration efforts with partner organisations as well as recognize top donors for the charity dinner. SNM hopes to raise at least $400,000 from this Charity dinner, which will be fully utilised to expand its current suite of community programmes and services and introduce new interventions for the less privileged and disadvantaged in our society.

2 Aimed at promoting intergenerational integration, a joint collaboration between students from Greenwood Primary School, Rainbow Centre Singapore and SNM residents will also showcase 90 art pieces, out of which, 10 of the best art pieces will be presented at the silent auction. Intergenerational integration plays an important role in developing an inclusive Singapore; it addresses the societal needs for social integration to keep ahead of time.

3 600 pieces of door gifts were also produced by the beneficiaries of the "Smile With You" programme, which is a collaborative project between Sree Narayana Mission and Project Smile.

4 In a collaborative effort, the dinner will witness a performance by MINDS (Movement for the Intellectually Disabled) and Heart Enterprise, which is a Social Enterprise to engage Persons with Special Needs.
