Welcoming the First Residents of SNM Nursing Home@Riverwalk

On 15 December 2025, Sree Narayana Mission (Singapore) welcomed the first residents of SNM Nursing Home@Riverwalk, a meaningful milestone marked by gratitude, purpose, and joy.

Despite a gentle drizzle, the occasion was filled with warmth as we received our residents with care and compassion, together with our Guest of Honour, Dr. Syed Harun Alhabsyi, Member of Parliament for Nee Soon GRC and Senior Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of National Development (MND) and the Ministry of Education (MOE).

During the visit, SNM CEO Mr. S. Devendran, JP, hosted a guided tour of the facility and wards for Dr. Harun, accompanied by SNM's leadership team. Dr. Harun personally presented fruit hampers to our new residents who were joined by their families, a simple yet deeply touching gesture that underscored the importance of human connection at the heart of eldercare.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the Ministry of Health (MOH), MOH Holdings (MOHH), and the Agency for Integrated Care (AIC), as well as to our dedicated staff whose unwavering efforts made this milestone possible.

About SNM Nursing Home@Riverwalk

SNM Nursing Home@Riverwalk is SNM's second residential care facility, located at 2 Yishun Lane in the heart of Nee Soon GRC. Envisioned as a "facility without walls," it's a place where elderly residents, their families, staff, volunteers, and neighbours can naturally come together to create warmth and a sense of community. The modern 302-bed home offers a safe and caring environment that supports seniors to age with dignity, comfort, and respect.

Fully funded and developed by the Ministry of Health (MOH) and MOH Holdings (MOHH), the home reflects Singapore's national commitment to eldercare as the nation prepares for a super-aged society, and SNM is honoured to play its part in this meaningful journey of care.

SNM Shines at the Singapore Health Quality Service Awards 2026

On 16 January 2026, our outstanding team celebrated a remarkable achievement at the Singapore Health Quality Service Awards 2026, bringing home 34 Silver, 22 Gold, and 24 Star awards, including two Superstar awards!

Special congratulations to Ms. Yogeswari Chandrasekaran, Head of Social Work & Resident Programmes, who received a Superstar Award as an Exemplar Leader in Allied Health and Pharmacy, and to Ms. Saravanan Mahalakshmi, Nurse Clinician at SNM Nursing Home@Chong Pang, who was honoured with a Superstar Award as an Exemplar Leader in Nursing.

We applaud our dedicated staff for their unwavering commitment to excellence in healthcare.

SNM CEO Receives Healthcare Humanity Award

Our CEO, Mr. S. Devendran, JP, was honoured with an award for dedication at the Healthcare Humanity Awards 2025, held on 6 November at The Clifford Pier. The award was presented by the President of Singapore, Mr. Tharman Shanmugaratnam.

The Healthcare Humanity Award (HHA) honours healthcare professionals who go beyond their duty to show exceptional compassion, resilience, and dedication in serving others.

Congratulations to Mr. Devendran on this well-deserved recognition!

SNM AAC@Race Course Receives Impactful Partnership Award

On 23 January 2026, SNM AAC@Race Course received the Impactful Partnership Award at the Kopi-AAC event organised by the Agency for Integrated Care (AIC) at Suntec Convention Hall. The award recognises our collective efforts with partners to deliver meaningful active ageing programmes for seniors.

The award was presented to our Centre Manager, Mr. Khairulnizam Massuan, by Mr. Tan Kiat How, Senior Minister of State for the Ministry of Digital Development and Information (MDDI) and the Ministry of Health (MOH). Our valued partner, Ms. Sara Mei Woo from the Singapore Women's Association (SWA), was also acknowledged for her contributions to this impactful collaboration. The event also provided a platform for our staff to connect with industry peers, exchange ideas, and explore collaborations for sustainable senior programmes.

We are deeply grateful to AIC for the invitation and extend our sincere thanks to all partners and colleagues who have supported our mission to enrich the lives of seniors.

Indian Navy Officers Serve Meals to SNM Residents

On 16 January 2026, officers from the Indian Navy Training Squadron visited SNM Nursing Home@Chong Pang to serve meals to our residents. The visit was organised in collaboration with the High Commission of India in Singapore as part of the Indian Navy's port call to Singapore from 15 to 18 January 2026.

The officers were warmly welcomed by SNM CEO, Mr. S. Devendran, JP, along with the Management Team and residents. The officers brought bento meals featuring Indian vegetarian cuisine, specially prepared by chefs onboard their visiting ships.

Meals were served to residents in our Multi-Purpose Hall, where the officers also spent time chatting with them and sharing stories, creating a joyful and lively atmosphere. The food was well received, and many residents expressed their appreciation personally. Officers also visited residents in their wards to deliver meals, bringing comfort and cheer to those unable to join the main gathering.

We thank the Indian Navy and the High Commission of India in Singapore for this meaningful initiative, which reflects their commitment to community outreach and a strong friendship between India and Singapore.

SNM Residents Celebrate Pongal with LiSHA's Women's Wing

On 17 January 2026, our residents at SNM Nursing Home@Chong Pang celebrated Pongal in a lively and joyful gathering organised by the Women's Wing of the Little India Shopkeepers and Heritage Association (LiSHA). The occasion was made even more special by the presence of Mrs. Sarojini Padmanathan, CEO of the Hindu Endowments Board, as the Guest of Honour.

The event began with the traditional Pongal ceremony, as milk boiled over in pots amid cheers and smiles. The celebration then continued in our Multi-Purpose Hall, where residents enjoyed a hands-on pot-painting session. With support from LiSHA members, volunteers from the C K Rokerzoids dance group, Miss & Mrs ASEAN Pageant, and their family members, each resident created a colourful keepsake to cherish.

The festivities continued with vibrant performances, including traditional dances and engaging dance dramas, followed by a lively karaoke session where residents sang along to beloved classics. The celebration ended on a sweet note with goodie bags for all, and LiSHA's Women's Wing also generously sponsored lunch for our residents.

SNM CEO Mr. S. Devendran, JP, expressed his appreciation to LiSHA's Women's Wing for organising the celebration, while Mrs. Sarojini conveyed her thanks to LiSHA and SNM for the warm invitation. Filled with colour, music, and festive cheer, the occasion was truly memorable, and we extend our heartfelt thanks to LiSHA's Women's Wing and all the volunteers who made the celebration so meaningful.

Chinese New Year Celebration with Fu Mei Gong Temple

On 1 February 2026, SNM Nursing Home@Chong Pang welcomed staff and volunteers from Fu Mei Gong Temple to celebrate the upcoming Chinese New Year with our beloved residents.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Jackson Lam and Fu Mei Gong Temple for sharing festive cheer, and making this celebration a memorable one for our residents.

We were honoured to have Mr. Jackson Lam, Grassroots Advisor for Nee Soon GRC (Nee Soon East), join us as Guest of Honour.

The celebration was filled with energy and joy, featuring a vibrant Lion Dance, performances of Chinese New Year classics, and even an Indian dance that added a delightful cultural touch. To conclude the celebration on a warm and meaningful note, Mr. Lam, together with the temple representatives, personally presented hongbaos to the residents, bringing smiles to their faces. Fu Mei Gong Temple also generously sponsored lunch for our residents and donated milk powder, rice, and crackers to our nursing home. In gratitude, we presented them with tokens of appreciation for their kind contribution.
